20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

SILENT REFLECTION (George MacLeod)

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper dictates to humankind how best to share their bread. What is the one remaining problem of this potentially plenteous earth but the problem of how to share the mercies that God wants to make available to all? Christ came to declare God's presence in common meals and at the market-place.

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please sign fellowship book found in pews.

This is the day that the Lord has made!

Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

CALL TO WORSHIP

Kendy Edinger, Liturgist

The world belongs to God,
the earth and all its people.

How good it is, how wonderful,
to live together in unity.

Love and faith come together,
justice and peace join hands.

If Christ's disciples keep silence,
these stones would shout aloud.

Open our lips, O God,
and our mouths shall proclaim Your praise.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Rev. David Young

We gather in God's name.

We claim Christ's promised presence.

My brothers and sisters, not out of dread and fear, but believing that God is faithful to forgive. Let us rid ourselves of what we need to carry no longer.

RESPONSIVE PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Before God, with the people of God, I confess to my brokenness, to the ways I wound my life, the lives of others, and the life of the world.

May God forgive you, Christ renew you, and the Spirit enable you to grow in love.

Amen.

Before God, with the people of God, we confess to our brokenness, to the ways we wound our lives, the lives of others, and the life of the world.

May God forgive you, Christ renew you, and the Spirit enable you to grow in love.

Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Rev. David Young

With the whole church

we affirm that we are made in God's image, befriended by Christ, empowered by the Spirit.

With people everywhere

we affirm God's goodness at the heart of humanity, planted more deeply than all that is wrong.

With all creation

we celebrate the miracle and wonder of life, the unfolding purposes of God, forever at work in ourselves and the world.

*DOXOLOGY

OLD HUNDREDTH

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise Him all creatures here below;

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

THE CELEBRATION OF HOLY COMMUNION

INVITATION

The table of bread and wine is now ready. It is the table of company with Jesus, and all who love Him. It is the table of sharing with the poor of the world with whom Jesus identified Himself. It is the table of communion with the earth, in which Christ became incarnate. So come to this table, you who have much faith and you who would have more. Come, you who have been here often, and you who have not been for a long time. Come, you who have tried to follow Jesus, and you who have failed. Come. It is Christ who invites us to meet him here.

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING (Begin by praying in unison)

Holy Lord God, in Your mercy You sent the One in whom Your fullness dwells. You sent Him to be for us the Way, the Truth, and the Life, and the Bread that gives life. We glorify You for Your great power and mercy at work in Christ. By Christ's suffering and death on the cross our sins are forgiven. By Christ's rising from the grave, victory over death has been won. We praise You that Christ our Life now reigns with You in glory, praying for us, until all things are made perfect.....

THE BLESSING OF THE BREAD AND THE CUP

THE COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE OF GOD

(We invite you to come forward to receive the gifts of God; place your offering in the plate; step to the left or the right; take a piece of bread; dip it into the cup receiving the gifts of God. If you are unable to come forward, stay in the pew and we will come to you.)

UNISON PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

We pray for God to enfold us and God to surround us, God in our speaking and God in our thinking, God in our life and God on our lips, God in our souls and God in our hearts. Amen.
